Terms and Conditions

1. We accept entries from the fields of film / performance / installation independently of specific format and year of production. The works should not exceed the durations indicated in our call.
2. We only accept one entry per artist and year.
3. The deadline for entries is June 5, 2017.
4. For consideration of films and video work we can only accept streaming links (Vimeo / Youtube / etc). To get an impression of performances and installations we require a documentation (stills or videos).
5. By sending their works, all artists give us the permission to include images and videos they provided in promotional materials of the festival, in print as well as online.
6. By signing this entry form all applicants guarantee us that they hold all necessary rights of audio and visual materials involved in their works. Furthermore they guarantee us to have the permission to apply at festivals with these works. The festival organizers will not be liable for any copyright infringements caused by the works in the program, their authors and the presentation of these works during the festival.
